play: Five yards from the previous spot or five yards from the spot where the subsequent dead ball belongs to Team B (Field goal plays exempted)."

Rationale: The receiving team will have the option of accepting the penalty after the return or forcing the kicking team to kick again five yards from the original line of scrimmage. This would

Article 1. Reviewable plays governed by sideline, goal line or end line include:

- a. Scoring plays, including a runner in possession of a live ball breaking the plane of a goal line.
- b. A pass ruled complete, incomplete or intercepted at a side line, goal line or an end line.
- c. A runner or pass receiver ruled in or out of bounds.
- d. Recovery of a loose ball in or out of bounds in the field of play or an end zone.

Passes

Article 2. Reviewable plays involving passes include:

- a. A pass ruled complete, incomplete or intercepted anywhere in the field of play or an end zone.
- b. A legal forward pass touched by an ineligible receiver.
- c. A legal forward pass touched by a defensive player.
- d. A fumble ruled on the part of a potential passer. (Note: If the on-field ruling is forward pass and the pass is incomplete, the play is not reviewable).
- e. A forward pass or forward handing ruled when a runner is beyond the line of scrimmage.
- f. A forward pass or forward handing ruled after a change of possession.
- g. A pass ruled forward or backward when thrown from behind the line of scrimmage. (Exception: If the pass is ruled forward and is incomplete, the play is not reviewable).

Miscellaneous

Article 3. Miscellaneous reviewable plays include:

of possession.

Plays Not Reviewable

Article 4. No other plays or officiating decisions are reviewable.

Section 4. Instant Replay Personnel, Equipment and Location

Personnel

Article 1. Instant replay personnel shall consist of the number of persons needed to operate the replay equipment within the necessary time constraints. A minimum of three persons shall be utilized to insure that all plays are reviewed in an efficient and a timely manner. Such persons are normally referred to as replay official, communicator and technician. Additional persons may be used as needed.

Equipment

Article 2. The type of equipment used to carry out necessary instant replay duties shall be determined by each conference or member institution utilizing instant replay.

Location

Article 3. a. All equipment used in making a decision during the replay process and the personnel using that equipment shall be located in a separate, secure location in the press box. This room

b. The head coach of either team may request that the game be stopped and a play be reviewed by challenging the on-field ruling one time during a game.

1. A coach initiates this challenge by taking a team time out before the ball is next put in play and informing the referee that the coach is challenging the ruling of the previous play.

2. After a review has been completed, if the on-field ruling is reversed, that team's time out will not be charged.

3. After a review has been completed and the on-field ruling is not reversed, the charged team time out counts as one of the three permitted that team for that half.

4. A head coach may not challenge a ruling in which the game was stopped and a decision has already been made by the replay official.

5. If a head coach requests a team time out to challenge an on-field ruling and the play being challenged is not reviewable, the time out shall count as one of the three permitted the team during that half of the game.

6. A head coach may not challenge an on-field ruling if all the team's timeouts have been used for that half. If all team timeouts have been used and a head coach signals for a challenge, it is considered a time out, a delay penalty will be assessed.

7. Each head coach shall be permitted one challenge per game.

When to Stop a Game

Article 2. a. A game may be stopped, either by the instant replay official or by a head coach's challenge of a ruling before the ball is next put in play.

When the referee has conferred with the replay official and the review process has been completed, the referee shall make one of the following announcements:

1. If the video evidence confirms the on-field ruling:

“After review, the ruling on the field is confirmed.”

2. If there is no indisputable (conclusive) evidence to reverse the on-field ruling:
